Perhaps we can talk for a few minutes after your staff meeting. (b) (5)
I'll touch base with Micah this morning. As of last Thursday, there had been no movement. Jim

We need to get back to OMB on our preferred timing for announcing the final Worker Protection Standard rule. The last week in September and the first week on October are the two lead candidates.

Good afternoon, everyone. It's my great pleasure to let you know that the C&T proposed rule was signed just moments ago! A pre-publication version of the NPRM that can be used for web posting with announcement/rollout is attached.

Congratulations!!!
